Arbeitsblatt 1:

be allowed to

Hello! See me on the CD-ROM to discover more about be allowed to and to learn better when to use it.

Du verwendest be (not) allowed to um auszudrücken, dass du etwas (nicht) darfst oder dir jemand etwas (nicht) erlaubt.

My brothers and I are allowed to play in the street because there isn't a lot of traffic. I'm not allowed to go out when it's dark – my parents say it's too dangerous.

1 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

feed the animals
skateboard
eat picnics
cross the road
play football stand up
make a noise
pick the flowers

2 Complete with allowed or not allowed.

Beth It's not fair. I'm ¹ not allowed to do anything.
Dad What do you mean?
Beth Well, Jim's ² to do everything. But I've got to follow all your rules.
Dad For example?
Beth Well, Jim's ³ to go out all night. I'm only ⁴ out until 10 p.m.
Dad But ...
Beth And Jim's ⁵ to buy CDs and he's ⁶ to listen to them loud. But I'm not. I'm ⁷ even to use your stereo.

Dad Well ...
Beth And I'm ⁸ to buy my own clothes. But Jim's ⁹ to wear what he wants.
Dad Yes Beth but ...
Beth And Jim is ¹⁰ to see his friends whenever he wants. I'm only ¹¹ to see my friends on Saturday.
Dad Yes Beth, but it's different with Jim.
Beth What dad? Why's Jim so special?
Dad Well, Jim is twenty, Beth.
Beth So?
Dad And you're only eight.
Beth You always say that. It's just not fair!
